Opening Plenary Agenda

Tuesday, July 21, 2020

Recommended audience: All 2017-2019 grantees

12:30 PM – 1:00 PM	Grantee Log In
1:00 PM – 1:15 PM	Opening Remarks Kim Vitelli, Administrator, Office of Workforce Investment, U.S. Department of Labor/ETA
1:15 PM – 2:15 PM	Intersectionality of Social Justice Practices Within the YouthBuild Model During this session, grantees will learn about the social identities that can equip participants for success by assisting them to navigate academic, business, and social services systems which have contributed over many years to oppression, trauma, and poverty, ultimately creating a culture for failure. Data shows that the “hardest to serve” are mentally and physically more stressed and those supporting them are closer to burnout, which is why self-care, mindfulness, and stress management matter. Grantees will leave the plenary with an increased awareness of these participant needs and how to better support them as well as supporting themselves through a mindful minute technique. Presenters: Michael Parker, Regional Director, East Harlem Youth Opportunity HUB at Union Settlement; Alumnus and former staff of Youth Action Programs and Homes (New York City) Shauna-Lee Ruglass, Chief of Staff, YouthBuild USA Thula Sibanda, Independent Consultant Ely Flores, DOL YouthBuild TA Coach Tiffany Murphy, Senior Director of Program Impact, YouthBuild USA

Recommended audience: All 2017-2019 grantees

12:45 PM – 1:00 PM	Grantee Log In
1:00 PM – 1:15 PM	Opening Remarks Jenn Smith, YouthBuild Director, U.S. Department of Labor/ETA
1:15 PM – 3:45 PM	Closing Plenary Presentation During the opening plenary, the foundation of social justice and its historical context within the YouthBuild movement was highlighted. We recognize there exists a spectrum of social justice awareness and practices among YouthBuild programs, and the closing plenary will aim to revisit key social justice concepts from the opening plenary and introduce a social justice action plan to move concepts from “theory to practice.” Individual staff roles and how they can be integrated to lead to programmatic success, while infusing social justice into those practices, will be explored. There will also be a networking session for YouthBuild programs to identify collaboration opportunities and allow for peer sharing.
3:45 PM – 4:00 PM	Evaluations, Close Out
