What do I know about jobs I might be good at and how much do I know about them?

Interest Profiler

Go to www.mynextmove.org/explore/ip

Click on the “Next” button to start the Interest Profiler

Answer the questions and move through the survey

Once Complete:

1. Which of the six areas did you score the highest? ______________
   a. Name two items that people with this score like:
      i. ________________________________
      ii. ________________________________

2. What area did you score the lowest? ___________________________

Click the “Next” button, read the screens and continue until you get to the screen “Select a Job Zone”. Choose one of the five options and hit “Next” until you get to the careers list.

List five specific careers that interest you based on the interest

profiler you have just completed

1. ________________

2. ________________

3. ________________

4. ________________

5. ________________
First, go to www.onetonline.org and type in the career choice listed in spot 1 under the occupation quick search.

What are two tasks required in this profession?

1.

2.

What is the median annual salary for this career?

Next, use a search engine to find the ‘Occupational Outlook Handbook’ on the US Bureau of Labor’s website.

Type in the career choice listed in spot 2 from above in the search bar at the top right hand corner of the screen. Click on the ‘Job Outlook’ tab.

What is the job outlook for this career from 2012-2020 (percent change in employment)?

Now click on the ‘Pay’ tab. What is the median annual wage (as of May 2012)?
Now click on the ‘Summary’ tab. What is the Job Outlook, 2012-22?

What is the salary average for the top 10%?

Now click on the ‘What They Do’ tab. List two duties.

Next, go to Indeed.com. Type in the career choice listed in spot 3 and a location where you would like to live and/or are living now.

Are there any jobs in your area for that career? ______

Take time to adjust how the jobs are sorted, the distance covered in the search, and the salary requirements.

List any jobs you would be interested in applying for in the future based on your search:

______________________________

______________________________
Go to www.ohiomeansjobs.com and click on “Search Jobs”. Using the career noted in the #4 spot above, search using keyword and your zip code.

Are there any positions available in the area? _______

What are they? ____________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

How do you apply for these positions?

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

Go to www.facebook.com and search for Project REBUILD Graduate Services. (Like the page if you haven’t already)

What is one position posted?

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________

List one posting that would interest you and that is appropriate for your skill set.

_________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________